

Heritage Royalty, the second largest owner of freehold mineral rights and gross over-riding royalty interest in Canada with assets in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, is seeking two full-time summer students with a keen interest in oil and gas mineral rights to work in the Land Department. The successful candidates will be exposed to all disciplines within the Land Department, including land administration, contracts, negotiations, and special projects.

Position Details:

Job Title: Land Summer Student
Reporting To: Land Advisor
Term: 4 Month Contract (ends August 31, 2018)
Start Date: May 1, 2018

Responsibilities:

- Assist with day-to-day land administration activities
- Provide support to area Land Analysts, Contracts Analysts and Area Land Managers
- Activity participate in the completion of large and small-scale land projects, including data management and data integrity projects
- Utilize land and mapping software systems to analyze extensive volumes of land and production data

Qualifications:

- Enrolled in either a full or part time post-secondary education program for the upcoming 2018-19 academic year. Enrollment in a land related program will be considered an asset.
- Motivated and dedicated individual with a positive attitude and excellent interpersonal skills
- Highly organized with excellent multi-tasking ability
- Ability to manage deadlines and work in a fast-paced environment
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Detail oriented with strong analytical and problem-solving skills
- Exceptional computer skills, with proficiency in Microsoft Office applications being required
- Previous experience in the oil and gas industry as well as familiarity with a land system and/or oil and gas mapping software will be considered an asset

To apply please forward a resume and cover letter by email to general.inquiries@heritageroyalty.ca.
Only qualified candidates of interest will be contacted. Posting close date: February 23, 2018